Eighteenth Defense

Plaintiff's claims against Warrick are barred, in whole or in part, because Warrick did not make any false statements to Plaintiff or any of the citizens for whom Plaintiff is seeking relief. As to any statement asserted against Warrick that Plaintiff alleges to be false or misleading, Warrick had no reasonable grounds to believe, and did not believe at the time such a statement was made, that the statement was false or misleading.

Nineteenth Defense

Plaintiff's claims against Warrick are barred because Warrick did not directly or indirectly engage in any conduct in violation of state or federal law.

Twenty-Second Defense

Warrick's conduct was not "deceptive" as required under Montana consumer protection laws.

Twenty-Fifth Defense

Any allegedly fraudulent statement or conduct of Warrick was not consumer-oriented as required under the Montana consumer protection laws.

Twenty-Seventh Defense

Some or all of Plaintiff's claims for injunctive relief against Warrick are barred by the doctrines of in pari delicto and/or unclean hands.

Twenty-Eighth Defense

Some or all of Plaintiff's claims against Warrick arise from Plaintiff's failure to follow its federal and state statutory and regulatory obligation to set reimbursement rates at Estimated Acquisition Cost.

Twenty-Ninth Defense

Plaintiff's claims against Warrick are barred, in whole or in part, due to its failure to join indispensable parties.

Thirtieth Defense

Thirty-First Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because any injuries sustained by Plaintiff were the result of its own conduct or the intervening or superseding conduct of third parties.

Thirty-Second Defense

Plaintiff's claims against Warrick for damages are barred, in whole or in part, because:

(1) Plaintiff failed to mitigate its damages, and that failure to mitigate damages should proportionately reduce the recovery of such persons and the allocation of any fault, if any exists, attributable to Warrick; (2) Plaintiff would be unjustly enriched if allowed to recover any portion of the damages alleged in the Complaint; (3) by the doctrine of consent and/or ratification to the extent that Plaintiff has received and paid for medicines manufactured, marketed and sold by

Warrick after the filing of Plaintiff's original Complaint; and (4) Plaintiff's claims are speculative and remote and because of the impossibility of ascertaining and allocating those alleged damages.

Thirty-Third Defense

Warrick is entitled to a set-off, should any damages be awarded against it, for the entire amount of all damages or settlement amounts recovered by Plaintiff, with respect to the same alleged injuries.

Thirty-Fourth Defense

The applicable statutory ceilings on recoverable damages must limit any damages recovered by Plaintiff from Warrick.

Thirty-Fifth Defense

Plaintiff fails to allege facts or a cause of action against Warrick sufficient to support a claim for attorneys' fees, double damages and/or legal fees.

Thirty-Sixth Defense

Plaintiff's punitive damages claims against Warrick: (1) have no basis in law or fact; (2) are not recoverable because the allegations of the Complaint are legally insufficient to support a claim for punitive damages against Warrick; (3) cannot be sustained because laws regarding the standards for determining liability for and the amount of punitive damages fail to give Warrick prior notice of the conduct for which punitive damages may be imposed and the severity of the penalty that may be imposed and are void for vagueness in violation of Warrick's due process rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the Constitution of the State of Montana; (4) cannot be sustained because any award of punitive damages exceeding the limits authorized by the laws or other comparable laws would violate Warrick's due process and equal protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and would be improper under the Constitution, common law and applicable state laws of Montana; (5) cannot be sustained because an award of punitive damages in this case, combined with any prior, contemporaneous, or subsequent judgments against Warrick for punitive damages arising from the design, development, manufacture, fabrication, distribution, supply, marketing, sale, or use of Warrick's medicines, would constitute impermissible multiple punishments for the same wrong in violation of Warrick's due process and equal protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and would constitute double jeopardy in violation of the Constitution, common law and statutory law of Montana; (6) cannot be sustained because any award of punitive damages without the apportionment of the award separately and severally between or among the alleged joint tortfeasors, as determined by the alleged percentage of the wrong committed by each alleged tortfeasor, would violate Warrick's due process and equal protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and would be improper under the Constitution, common law and public policies of Montana; and (7) cannot be sustained because any award of punitive damages, which are penal in nature, without according Warrick the same protections that are accorded to all criminal defendants, including the protection against unreasonable searches and seizures, the privilege against self-incrimination, and the rights to confront adverse witnesses, a speedy trial, and the effective assistance of counsel, would violate Warrick's rights guaranteed by the Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Amendments as incorporated into the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and would be improper under the Constitution, common law and public policies of Montana.

Thirty-Seventh Defense

Plaintiff's claim for punitive damages against Warrick cannot be sustained because an award of punitive damages by a jury that: (1) is not provided constitutionally adequate standards of sufficient clarity for determining the appropriate imposition of, and the appropriate size of, a punitive damages award; (2) is not adequately instructed on the limits of punitive damages imposed by the applicable principles of deterrence and punishment; (3) is not expressly prohibited from awarding punitive damages, or determining the amount of an award of punitive damages, in whole or in part, on the basis of invidiously discriminatory characteristics, including without limitation, the residence, wealth, and corporate status of Warrick; (4) is permitted to award punitive damages under a standard for determining liability for punitive damages that is vague and arbitrary and does not define with sufficient clarity the conduct or mental state that makes punitive damages permissible; (5) is not properly instructed regarding Plaintiff's burden of proof with respect to each and every element of a claim for punitive damages; and (6) is not subject to trial court and appellate judicial review for reasonableness and furtherance of legitimate purposes on the basis of constitutionally adequate and objective standards, would violate Warrick's Due Process and Equal Protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and would be improper under the Constitution, common law and public policies of Montana.

Thirty-Eighth Defense

Plaintiff's claim for punitive damages against Warrick cannot be sustained because an award of punitive damages that is subject to no predetermined limit, such as a maximum multiple of compensatory damages or a maximum amount of punitive damages that may be imposed, would: (1) violate Warrick's Due Process rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution; (2) violate Warrick's right not to be subjected to an excessive award; and (3) be improper under the Constitution, common law and public policies of Montana.

Thirty-Ninth Defense
